

Call for Papers: Louisiana State University History Graduate Conference

The History Graduate Student Association at Louisiana State University is delighted to announce the ninth annual History Graduate Conference, planned for March 9th-10th, 2018. The conference allows graduate students to present original and ongoing work in a professional environment, and receive critical feedback from peers and experts in their fields. This year's keynote speaker is Dr. Daniel Greene, a guest Exhibition Curator at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, D.C., where he is preparing an exhibition on Americans and the Holocaust opening in 2018 in commemoration of the Museum's twenty-fifth anniversary. He is also an Adjunct Professor of History at Northwestern University. Dr. Greene's publications include The Jewish Origins of Cultural Pluralism: The Menorah Association and American Diversity and Home Front: Daily Life in the Civil War North. He was awarded the Saul Viener Prize by the American Jewish Historical Society for the best book in American Jewish History published 2011-2012.

We invite submissions for panels or individual papers from graduate students at all levels. Proposals may cover all fields and approaches of historical scholarship and span all chronological and geographical boundaries.

Paper Proposals must be submitted no later than December 1, 2017

Please limit proposals to 300 words. Submissions should include a working title and brief description of the central argument, as well as a copy of the scholar's curriculum vitae. For panel proposals, please include a 200-word description of the panel topic as well as individual paper abstracts and vitae.

If selected, participants must submit final papers by January 25, 2018.

Please send proposals and questions to hgsa@lsu.edu. Visit our website at http://www.lsu.edu/student_organizations/hgsa/conference.html.
